

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Francisco - October 6, 2006 - Andrew Lane to Pour Delicious, Limited-edition Napa Valley Wines at San Francisco Magazine's Fall Fest

Andrew Lane, a family-run Napa winery, www.andrewlanewines.com, will pour its award-winning Gamay Noir and Sauvignon Blanc at San Francisco magazine's Fall Fest.

San Francisco magazine's award-winning food editorial comes to life at this annual event. FallFest brings together local restaurateurs, winemakers, and epicurean artisans for an inspiring day of premier food and wine tasting, chef demonstrations, a VIP wine seminar, and live music.

Andrew Lane 2004 Gamay brushes your palate with the velvety texture of a Pinot Noir, but with a more vibrant, red fruit character. It offers a lively bouquet and flavor of fresh red cherries, red currents, with touches of strawberry and spice on the finish. The Gamay is produced from 50+ year-old vines, one of the last remaining Gamay vineyards in Napa Valley.

Andrew Lane 2004 Sauvignon Blanc offers aromas of citrus and lemon grass on the nose with bright flavors of juicy pineapple and grapefruit that will make your mouth water. Offering a light and incredibly crisp mouthfeel packed with citrus, it balances acidity with a refreshing and buttery finish.
